By giving you the widest possible choice of images from which to choose your favourites, your finished album will be very personal and above all else, it will be unique to you! Alternatively if you go for one of our DVD options, everything that's shot on the day will be on your copyright free DVD for you to print whatever you want from it!

The Wedding Book (As seen in Cosmopolitan Bride)

For the couple who want something that little bit different from their wedding photography, this is the ultimate album!

Coverage for this album will usually start at the Bride's home with portraits of the Bride, her family and bridesmaids, capturing all of the fun and frivolity. These will be taken in the informal setting of your home or hotel prior to leaving for the Wedding ceremony. Coverage will usually finish with your first dance in the evening as a newly married couple, surrounded by your friends and family.

Two photographers* will, provide you with a fantastic and unlimited selection of previews in your own FREE personalised coffee-table style preview book from which you will choose your 80 favourite images. Roy will shoot his own unique style of those all-important modern classical images together with some great candid photos of the day, while the second photographer mingles with your guests and friends to shoot in a wonderful contemporary/photo-journalistic style.

Using two cameras like this will ensure that none of the action is missed and it also allows for maximum creativity and the widest crossover of photographic styles within your finished wedding album. But that's just the start! Once you've chosen your favourite 80 images, they will be transferred, by disc, to an Italian design studio. When your disc reaches the Italian designers your images will be translated into a wonderful correlation of contemporary imagery. These images will then be bound together using a patented Italian binding system into your own personal Wedding Book, as has often been featured in Cosmopolitan Bride Magazine. The Wedding Book comes complete in its own carry case with a handle and locks to keep it safe. You will also receive two smaller copies of your Wedding book at no extra cost and you may like to give these as gifts to parents or special friends and family. Your favourite image from the day can also be reproduced as the front cover of your finished wedding album. Contact Roy so that he can show you a sample album so that you can see for yourself just how good those Italian designers are!

All this plus your FREE personalised preview book for just £1595.00

The Story Book

For a long time our Story Book album packages have proved to be our most popular.

Photographic coverage for the Story Book will be much the same as for the Wedding Book Album, starting with a great set of pictures of the fun at the Bride's home or hotel as she prepares for her big day, the Bridesmaids, the flowers and of course not forgetting the champagne!

Two photographers* will be on hand, to provide you with a fantastic and unlimited selection of previews from which you will choose your 80 favourite images. These will then be mounted into a wonderful hand-crafted, quality, reportage-style Wedding Album, complete with either your star-signs or your initials on the front cover. This makes your album very special and above all else, very personal to you and your new partner.

As with the Wedding book, Roy will shoot his own unique style of those all-important modern classical images together with some great candid photos of the day, while the second photographer mingles with your guests and friends to shoot in a wonderful contemporary/photo-journalistic style.

Again coverage will normally finish sometime after your first dance when Roy will leave you both to enjoy the rest of your day.

On your return from honeymoon, a stylish coffee-table style book containing several hundred images from your day will be waiting for you. This will be personalised with your names and the date of your wedding and will also feature a favourite photo from the day on the front cover.

It's yours to keep and from it you make your choice of your favourite eighty photographs from which Roy will personally plan your new reportage Wedding album.

For the discerning Bride – a real story book of your Wedding day!

The photographic coverage for the Story Book Deluxe will be much the same as for the Story Book, but, if required, the second photographer can also cover the Groom and Groomsmen enjoying their preparations on the big day. After the ceremony there may be a visit to a local beauty spot (if appropriate) so that we can take those special images before going on to your chosen reception venue.

In addition to this, the wedding breakfast, the speeches and the first dance will all be covered by the photographers, together with all the celebration and the merriment. This will be done in a candid informal style so as not to intrude on the proceedings and to leave you free to enjoy the rest of your day.
